

Klovy Chat Community Guidelines

Last updated: September 8, 2026

Klovy Chat is a communication platform created for friends, communities, interest groups, teams, and anyone who wants to connect with others.

Our rules are intentionally simple. We want users to have freedom to express themselves, discuss controversial topics, joke around, share opinions, and create their own communities.

We do not want to moderate every argument, joke, unpopular opinion, or piece of edgy content. Our focus is mainly on serious abuse, real-world harm, and misuse of the platform.

We Encourage You To

- Treat other users with basic respect.
- Express yourself freely while considering the people around you.
- Create and participate in communities you enjoy.
- Use Klovy Chat responsibly.
- Report genuinely harmful or abusive behavior when necessary.

User Safety

Violence and Extremism

Discussion of violence, wars, extremist movements, terrorism, politics, religion, and other controversial subjects is generally allowed.

We may take action against content that seriously encourages, organizes, or facilitates real-world violence or terrorism.

Historical, educational, journalistic, fictional, satirical, and critical discussions are generally allowed.

Disinformation and Manipulation

Users are free to discuss controversial topics, theories, politics, science, and other subjects, including opinions that may be unpopular or incorrect.

We may intervene when someone deliberately spreads seriously harmful false information with the intention of causing real-world harm.

Being wrong or having an unpopular opinion is not, by itself, a violation.

Hate Speech and Discrimination

Users may express opinions, criticize ideas, and make jokes, including controversial or offensive ones.

We may take action when content becomes targeted harassment, serious threats, or deliberate encouragement of violence or discrimination against people because of characteristics such as race, nationality, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, or similar characteristics.

Context matters. Not every offensive statement will result in moderation.

Self-Harm and Suicide

Discussion of self-harm, suicide, eating disorders, mental health, and difficult personal experiences is allowed.

We do not allow content that seriously encourages, instructs, or pressures another person to harm themselves or commit suicide.

Content Harmful to Minors

Sexual exploitation or abuse involving minors is strictly prohibited.

Any sexually explicit content involving minors may be removed and reported to the appropriate authorities where required by law.

We take the safety of minors seriously while allowing normal discussion and non-sexual content involving younger users.

Threats, Harassment, and Doxing

Arguments, disagreements, trolling, teasing, insults, and general internet drama are not automatically violations.

We may intervene when behavior becomes serious or persistent harassment, stalking, credible threats, blackmail, or an attempt to put someone's real-world safety at risk.

Sharing someone's private personal information without a good reason or their consent may result in moderation, especially when it is intended to threaten, expose, or harm them.

Violence and Gore

Discussion of violence, accidents, war, crime, death, and other disturbing subjects is allowed.

Real-world graphic content may be restricted when it is shared primarily to shock, threaten, harass, or seriously disturb others.

Context such as news, education, history, or documentation may be taken into account.

Illegal Activities

Klovy Chat may be used to discuss laws, illegal activities, drugs, weapons, piracy, and other controversial subjects.

However, the platform should not be used to seriously organize, facilitate, or carry out criminal activity.

We do not treat a discussion about an illegal activity as automatically meaning that the user is committing that activity.

Malware and Cyberattacks

Cybersecurity discussions, programming, penetration testing, reverse engineering, security research, and educational material are allowed.

Users may not use Klovy Chat to distribute malware, steal credentials, compromise accounts, conduct DDoS attacks, or intentionally damage systems.

Responsible security research is welcome.

Copyright-Infringing Content

Users are responsible for the content they upload and share.

We do not attempt to manually review every image, video, file, meme, or other piece of content for copyright issues.

Content may be removed when we receive a valid copyright complaint or when removal is otherwise required by applicable law.

Impersonation

Using nicknames, aliases, parody accounts, fictional identities, or similar forms of expression is allowed.

Impersonation becomes a problem when it is intended to seriously deceive people, commit fraud, or cause harm.

Sexual and Adult Content

Adult content may be permitted in appropriately designated areas, subject to applicable laws and platform features.

Users should not force explicit content into spaces where it is clearly inappropriate or unwanted.

Sexual content involving minors or non-consensual sexual activity is strictly prohibited.

Community administrators may set stricter rules for their own spaces.

Fair Use of the Platform

Spam and Unwanted Advertising

Normal self-promotion, advertising, project sharing, and links are allowed unless a community has its own rules against them.

Mass unsolicited messages, repeated unwanted advertising, and automated spam are not allowed.

Fraud and Scams

Do not use Klovly Chat to deliberately scam, phish, blackmail, or steal from other users.

Users should also use common sense when dealing with strangers, links, offers, and transactions.

Klovly Chat does not guarantee transactions or agreements made between users.

Bots and Automation

Bots, integrations, scripts, and other forms of automation are allowed.

They should not be used to spam users, abuse platform features, bypass security measures, or place unreasonable load on the service.

Artificially Inflating Activity

Using bots or other methods to artificially manipulate platform activity may be restricted when it is done abusively or to deceive other users.

Normal community growth, promotion, and legitimate engagement are allowed.

Account Trading

Buying, selling, or trading Klovly Chat accounts is discouraged and may result in the loss of access to the account.

We cannot guarantee account recovery or support for accounts that have been transferred between users.

Circumventing Restrictions and Moderation

Do not deliberately create replacement accounts to bypass a platform-wide suspension or ban.

Community-level bans and restrictions are controlled by individual community administrators.

Abuse of Platform Resources

Do not intentionally attack, overload, disrupt, or damage Klovly Chat infrastructure.

This includes DDoS attacks, abusive automated traffic, deliberate exploitation of platform vulnerabilities, and other forms of technical sabotage.

Normal heavy usage, automation, and development activity are allowed as long as they do not intentionally abuse the service.

Unauthorized Collection of Personal Data

Do not intentionally collect, expose, or misuse private personal information belonging to other users.

Public information and normal community interactions are not automatically considered unauthorized data collection.

Applicable privacy laws, including the GDPR where relevant, still apply.

Misleading the Support Team

Do not intentionally submit fabricated evidence or reports with the goal of getting another user punished.

Mistakes, misunderstandings, and reports made in good faith are completely fine.

Privacy and Personal Data

Klovly Chat respects user privacy.

Users should not:

- Share another person's private information with the intention of harming or exposing them.
- Record or monitor private conversations in ways that violate applicable law.
- Misuse personal information obtained through the platform.

Personal data is processed in accordance with applicable privacy laws, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) where applicable.

Community Culture

Klovy Chat is intended to give communities a reasonable amount of freedom.

Users are encouraged to:

- Respect – remember that there are real people behind accounts.
- Freedom – you are allowed to have your own opinions and interests.
- Context – not everything should be taken literally or out of context.
- Responsibility – freedom also means being responsible for what you do.

Different communities may have completely different cultures. That is okay.

Reporting Violations

If you believe that someone is seriously violating these guidelines, you can use the built-in reporting system available for messages and user profiles.

You can also contact us at:

kontakt@klovy.chat

Reports are reviewed by the team responsible for Klovy Chat moderation.

Not every report will result in action. Context and circumstances may be considered when reviewing a report.

Consequences of Violations

We prefer reasonable moderation rather than automatically banning users.

Depending on the situation, we may:

- Take no action – if the content does not violate the guidelines.
- Remove content – when only specific content needs to be removed.
- Issue a warning – for minor or first-time issues.

- Temporarily restrict an account – for repeated or more serious violations.
- Permanently remove an account – for serious or repeated abuse.
- Contact authorities – when required by applicable law.

The severity, context, intent, and previous behavior may all be considered.

Appeals

If you believe that moderation action was incorrect, you may appeal by contacting:

kontakt@klovy.chat

We will review appeals when reasonably possible.

Scope and Jurisdiction

Klovy Chat operates globally. These guidelines apply to all users of the platform.

Klovy Chat may be required to comply with applicable laws, court orders, and lawful requests from competent authorities.

Nothing in these guidelines is intended to remove rights or obligations that cannot legally be excluded.

Jurisdiction	Reason
Poland	Service operator
European Union	Data protection and applicable digital regulations
Global	Cloudflare services and international availability of the platform

Klovy Chat follows applicable Polish and European Union law.

These Community Guidelines may be updated when necessary. Significant changes may be communicated to users where appropriate.

Using Klovy Chat means that you agree to follow these guidelines and applicable law.
